STT Course Public Speaking for Academics

Dublin | Ireland 6 to 12 November 2016

Objectives

The Erasmus Plus STT course on Public Speaking for Academics focuses on the development of communication skills in the academic context. Nowadays, researchers who are keen on advancement in their career must be able to provide inspiring, educational and succinct research proposals. Events like TEDx and FameLab set a gold standard for provision of amazing science-based presentation which impress audiences.

This course is well-suited for academics who want to deliver talks and presentations at international conferences, produce convincing arguments for such things as grant applications and to be a part of academic discussions which further research in their area.

Programme

The course will take place in the capital city of Ireland - Dublin. Participants will be provided with Erasmus Plus Staff Mobility (STT) certificates and EUROPASS upon completion. The course will run for 5 days (25h) and will also include the option to participate in cultural immersion activities including Irish Cultural Night and a visit to the Guinness Storehouse – the world-famous 250-year-old former brewery.

Participants

Course workshop participants should have CEFR level B1 in English and should be willing to improve their academic English skills. PhD holders, PhD candidates and as well other members of academia who would like to advance their communication skills for academia.

Accommodation

Accommodation in Dublin is provided by the organiser and this is included in the price of the seminar. The organiser offers two accommodation options:

- Apartment Accommodation
self-catering accommodation
- Accommodation in Host Families experiencing an Irish family with half-board Monday to Friday and full-board at the weekend
